OLD WATER FIGHT IS ON

Albert Christian Described His Wedding.

Mother and Daughter at Variance in Estate Business.

Accounts of Estate of Blaisdell Minors — Order of Foreclosure.

The hearing of the Nottley will case was concluded before the Supreme Court yesterday. Following it the water rights controversy of Hawaiian Commercial & Sugar Co. vs. Wailuku Sugar Co. came up. As Justices Hartwell and Hatch were both disqualified, the court was constituted by Chief Justice Frear and Circuit Judges Robinson and Matthewman. W. O. Smith and Castle & Withington appear for plaintiff, and Kinney, McLanahan & Cooper and Ballou & Marx for defendant. J. J. Dunne appeared to intervene for the natives owning kuleanas in the district involved, but the court denied leave of intervention.

THE CHRISTIAN MARRIAGE.
Another day was consumed and the end not yet, before Judge Gear, in Mrs. Kentwell's suit to annul the marriage of Elizabeth J. Holt Christian to Albert Christian. The defending husband occupied the stand most of the day. He told in direct examination all about his courtship and marriage, together with some of his married experiences.

His father-in-law was represented as greatly pleased at the prospect of his daughter's marriage, especially as it would take her from the custody and control of the Kentwells. On the trip downtown to get the marriage license the prospective groom insisted that the girl's father must be sober until after he gave the bride away. Hence, although the old gentleman bought a gallon of whisky he indulged in but two drinks of the stimulant in the afternoon before the ceremony at the Catholic church in the evening. The ceremony was described in detail with special reference to the bride's answering of "Yes" to the usual question and her seeming comprehension of the significance of the rite. After the twain were united, the wedding party drove to the home of the groom's sisters and himself, where the couple lived until separated by Mrs. Kentwell, who according to the husband, spirited the wife away while he was absent on a gasoline schooner aboard which he was employed.

After going to the house the father should know. The troubles with multitudes of girls is a want of proper nourishment and enough of it. Now-a-days they call this condition by the learned name of Anemia. But words change no facts. There are thousands of girls of this kind anywhere between childhood and young ladyhood. Disease finds most of its victims among them. Some of them are passing through the mysterious changes which lead up to maturity and need especial watchfulness and care. Alas, how many break down at this critical period; the story of such losses is the saddest in the history of home. The proper treatment might have saved most of these household treasures, if the mothers had only known of WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION and given it to their daughters, they would have grown to be strong and healthy women. It is palatable as honey and contains all the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. In building up pale, puny, emaciated children, particularly those troubled with Anemia, Scrofula, Rickets, and Bone and Blood diseases, nothing equals it; its tonic qualities are of the highest order. A Medical Institution says: "We have used your preparation in treating children for coughs, colds and inflammation; its application has never failed us in any case, even the most aggravated bordering on pneumonia." The more it is used the less will be the ravages of disease from infancy to old age. It is both a food and a medicine,—modern, scientific, effective from the first dose, and never deceives or disappoints. "There is no doubt about it." Sold by all chemists here and throughout the world.

MOTHERS

had everybody drink from the contents of the demijohn to the health of the couple. Among other reasons given for regarding his wife as rational, Christian told about the household duties in which she helped his sisters. She also played cards with the rest of them, casino being the usual game, besides which she had picked up solitaire from her sisters-in-law. Witness had been told by his wife that Mrs. Kentwell, on taking her to her home in a buggy, had taken her car fare from her—having overtaken her as she was waiting for a car—and told her to throw away the wedding ring. In his cross-examination Christian, replying to the court's question, "Who bought the ring?" said it was his mother's ring.

P. H. Burnette, the agent who issued the marriage license, gave evidence before the court rose for the day.

MOTHER AGAINST DAUGHTER.

Judge De Bolt denied the motion of Claudina J. Camara, widow, for the removal of Augusta Bell as administratrix of the estate of J. M. Camara, deceased, and for a full accounting by such administratrix. A. G. Correa was attorney for the complainant, whose grounds of motion were that the administratrix had neglected the management of the estate in North Kona, that she had not accounted for all estate moneys received by her and that the estate would suffer irreparable loss if some proper person were not appointed administratrix in place of Augusta Bell. The petitioner is mother of the respondent. Her petition was denied because the accounts of the respondent had already been approved by the court.

BLAISDELL MINORS ESTATE.

J. Alfred Magoon, guardian of the J. L. Blaisdell minors, has filed his account for the year ending June 30, 1903, showing receipts of $15,995.09 and payments of $12,196.41, which leave a balance of $3,798.68. Of the receipts $12,127.67 were on principal, and $3867.42 on income account, while $3250 was disbursed on principal, and $2946.41 on income account.

J. Alfred Magoon, guardian of the J. L. Blaisdell minors, has filed his account for the year ending June 30, 1904, showing receipts of $8467.30 and payments of $5526.14, which leave a balance of $2841.16. Of the receipts $5090.83 was on principal, and $3316.47 on income account, while $3100 was disbursed on principal, and $2426.14 on income account.

A SMALL ESTATE.

Wahinehewa Maewa (w.), sister of deceased, petitions for letters of administration on the estate of the late Ben Kaunahi, which consists of $46.40 in Bishop & Co.'s savings bank. The heirs at law are four brothers and four sisters. As the costs of administration will amount to about $17, there will be less than $4 apiece for distribution among the heirs. Judge Gear directed that the petition be filed without deposit of costs other than for advertising the notice.

MRS. WRIGHT'S ESTATE.

Judge Gear appointed Henry Holmes as ancillary administrator with the will annexed of the estate in Hawaii of Elizabeth Wright, who died in England, under a bond of $3000. Deceased was the wife of Thomas Wright, who lived here with her husband many years.

CHEW MON CASE.

In the suit of Judge De Bolt, as successor to Judge Humphreys, against the administrators of the Ah Chew estate, it is stipulated that the deposition of Lee Shee, a witness for plaintiff, may be taken next Saturday, as the witness is about to leave the Territory. This is the case in which Chew Mon, one of the administrators, is alleged to have absconded to Manila with $300 or $400 belonging to the estate.

FORECLOSURE.

Judge Gear made an order of foreclosure in the case of the Sam'l. C. Allen estate trustees against Isaac H. Harbottle, appointing W. R. Sims as commissioner of sale.

BRILLIANT RECEPTION AT "CRAIG SIDE" HOUSE

A brilliant farewell reception was given on Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. T. Clive Davies at "Craigside" in honor of British Consul W. R. Hoare, and Miss Hoare, who depart shortly for England. The beautiful residence was radiant with lights and floral decorations and all society was present to bid farewell to the popular representative of His Britannic Majesty and the lady who has presided with so much tact at the consulate during Mr. Hoare's regime.

Upon the lawn were two marquees beneath one of which the Hawaiian Government band played during the evening, and under the other dainty refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Davies received the guests with Consul and Miss Moore and Mrs. West.
